

Lawrence King Carver

April 4, 1929 - December 4, 2019

Lawrence King Carver, age 90 of Waldorf, Maryland, died December 4, 2019 at the University of Maryland Charles Regional Medical Center in La Plata, Maryland.

Lawrence went home to be with his Lord and Savior and beloved late-wife, Dorothy Mae Waugh Carver on December 4, 2019. He was the son of Daniel Filmore Carver and Myrtle Harrison King. He went home peacefully surrounded by his loving family – son Lloyd, daughter in law Maria, and grandson Erik.

Lawrence is survived by his children, Debora Lynn Carver Owens, Lawrence Allen Carver, Diana Lee Greene, Lloyd Aaron Carver; 10 grandchildren; and three great grandchildren.

He was a charter member of Clovis Missionary Baptist Church in Clovis, California established in 1979. With a calling to tell others of Salvation through Jesus Christ, he was ordained as a minister on the ninth day of February 1985.

Later in life living with Lloyd and his family, he loved studying the scriptures and typing lessons for his family and friends and attending the many soccer games of his Grandson Erik.

Although he will be sorely missed, according to John 14:27 we will have peace and assurance in the Lord of being with Dad again soon.
