“ My dear Friend, my son and I met Marian at Panera my son was only about 5 at the time and he was drawn to her she was like a second grandma to him. Marian and I would meet every Thursday at Panera and talk boy she could make me laugh on my worst day. I know she is in heaven and smiling down. I am so thankful God blessed me with such a beautiful friend. Love you

“ My girlfriend, what do I say??? everyone that knew you will miss you because you left an impression, where ever you went, whoever you met they knew that you had come into their lives. you commanded attention, the way you dressed (always immaculate) that attitude of yours (always self assured) and your kind and generous heart. you my dear were a force of nature and you have definitely left your mark. Your family that loves you beyond measure and closest friends will have a void that can't be filled, a sadness that we won't see you or hear your voice giving advice... .. it's sad, I will always love you and miss you, have no doubt about that but we will meet again and we'll cry and hug and relive old memories and make new ones. till then girlfriend know that you are loved....
your girlfriend, Jennie

“ I met Mary at the Chick fil A bingo in La Plata. There was someone at our table and she actually told them they had to move because we were getting ready to play Bingo. After that she would always save our table by putting her bingo marker on the table. She was our friend and will be missed. Stacy and Pete
