“ There are no words to express my sincere condolences to our family and friends. Due to distance, I only got the pleasure of meeting my cousin, Aaron Franklin, one time. I thank God for that meeting because Aaron and I immediately connected and kept in touch. He was so outgoing and just fun to be around. My heart breaks for my Uncle Mike, Barbara, Donna, Aaron Jr, Anthony, Sarah, his grandkid(s), Mike Jr, Zach, Tosha, and all of his friends. I love each of you so much and if I were there, I would hug your necks so tight. I prayed hard for Aaron from the beginning and will continue to pray for comfort and peace for everyone affected. Fortunately, this is not the final destination and we will see Aaron again one day. Aaron...I look forward to our reunion in the sky, cuz! I love you and you will forever be in my heart! May you rest in peace and suffer no more!

“ My son & I are very thankful to have been fortunate enough to know Aaron & the Carpenter family. Aaron's smile could light up a room, & the love for his family was dedicated & sincere. Through good times & hard times, we hope everyone in the family knows how much they are loved & appreciated. Always in our hearts, Mary Decker & Rick Hood.

“ If you ever hear someone say "The good ol Days" those were the few years I spent 24/7 with Arron. Those teenage years were great to have a friend like Arron because he was true and loyal. We had not a worry in the world at that age and it showed by some of the crazy stuff we got into. I remember the tightness of his family and how they all stuck together and always made me feel apart of that. Even when the butt whooping came from his mom or his brothers. I also remember him ready at anytime to dish out a whooping if anybody was to mess with his baby sister. As we got older and move on to other places we seemed to lose contact. A few years back we re- connected and got to talk about our lives and the many changes. The one thing that did not change with Arron was the closeness of his family and the love he has for them. Arron will always be my best freind and will be missed by many, but my prayers are now with his family that I know are feeling empty and sad.
