

Abigail McGraw Fleming

May 26, 1983 - January 19, 2020

Abigail McGraw Fleming (35) of Waldorf, Maryland, passed away on January 19, 2020.

Abigail touched the lives of many with her cheerful personality and willingness to help. While she loved Elvis, the Redskins, and the Wizard of Oz, she loved her family the most. There is nothing that compares to the love she had for her best friend and husband, Michael and her two boys, Kelly and Vincent. May your heaven be filled with sunflowers and frogs. You family will love you always.

In addition to her husband and children, she is survived by her father, Finis McGraw; her mother, Sharon Mann; her brother, Finis D. McGraw (Margarita); and her sister, Shana McGraw.

Visitation on Friday, January 24, 2020 from 1-3PM with Memorial Service at 2:30PM at Raymond Funeral Service Chapel, 5635 Washington Avenue, La Plata, Maryland 20646.

Memorial contributions are asked to Archbishop Neale School (La Plata, Maryland).

“ I met Abby through her high school friends, but she was already a wife and mother by the time I met her. Abby was a sweet, kind, loving, and polite person. I could tell she really loved Mikey and the boys! Words can not express the loss of such a lovely woman, wife, and mother. Thoughts, prayers, and love to her family during this difficult time.

“ My condolences to your family. Abby was a ray of sunshine. I loved being her client. She always make each appointment filled with laughter. She was a perfectionist when it came to her work and I loved that she took so much pride in her work. She always talked about her boys so I pray they find comfort. She will definitely be missed!

“ Steve and I watched Abby grow up with our sons and the boys in the neighborhood. She was always our little sunshine. She could make anyone happy just by being around her. We were at her wedding to Mike one of the most joyful days of her life. It was only topped by the birth of Kelly then Vincent. She and Mike came on vacation with us, visited our home regularly and brought the boys so we could watch them grow. She will be fiercely missed and loved by us always. Bless you Mike and boys words can't be spoken.

“ I had the tremendous privilege of being Abigail's God mother, I wish I had been a more active one. I was at her Christening, her first Communion and had the joy of performing the wedding ceremony when she and Michael were married. I will never forget when the time in the rites came to, "with this ring" you should have seen the look on Shanna's face -- off she ran -- at pell mell speed up the beach. She had left the rings in her room! There were chuckles and laughter as we waited for her breathless return. Once again "with this ring..." completed this beautiful moment of Abigail's and Michael's wedding vows.

“ I met Abby over ten years ago at the spa and I am so happy that I did. Every time I saw her she was always smiling. Her energy and positive spirit is what I will always remember her for. She would make me laugh and look at the bright side of things. She was caring, loving, genuine and just funny. Mike and the boys was her everything. I pray for the family because I know she was truly an angel. I will miss her hugs, laughs, crazy talks, love, and friendship.

“ Abby.....where can I start. It's TOO sudden. My fiancé shared with me the first responders were on your block (Sunday about 3am) and I knew it was your home. I told myself I would reach out to you to check in but Sunday and Monday was very festive for me. The conversations, the cheerful spirit, your willingness to give will be missed. We met at the salon (in 2012 if I'm not mistaken) when I was on my lowest moments and you knew what to say that always lifted me up. I will truly miss the red hair Irish beautiful lady who always talked about her family and how releasing pimples fascinated you. You would always say I think we seen you running....and yes it was me. I can't hold back the tears.....selfishly I wish you was still here! I pray for strength for your entire family especially your boys.

“ I started off as a client of Abby and she quickly became my friend. She was so open, transparent, loving, trusting and real. Really Real. She is the only non-family member of mine to give actual hugs. Not "church hugs", lol. When she embraced you after an appointment, you knew you mattered to her. She made the most uncomfortable-ist of situations not only pleasant, but enjoyable. She was talented and caring. Her fairness and warmth was refreshing. She only spoke highly of people and was kind. I loved to share stories about my life with her and she did the same. We would cackle and chat all appointment long. Her hustle was inspiring. She ALWAYS sent a "thank you" text before I made it to my car, follow-up reminders like clock-work and always responded to texts. She really cared. I am going to miss her emoji-filled texts and her. I am honored to have known her. As I type, I shed tears because I am saddened by the loss. I am forever changed by her light, which will shine brightly through her children and family. I know heaven will gain an angel, but today, this one hurts deeply. RIP Beautiful.

“ I am so saddened to hear about Abby's passing ~ she was always such a lovely, kind, caring, beautiful person. I met her while giving her a tour of the school where her son would soon attend, her smile and sheer joy of knowing her son would be attending her alma mater was just incredible. I was blessed to know her these past 4 years and will miss her beautiful smile. Sending love and prayers for comfort and peace to her family and friends. Rest in peace, sweet friend. XO

“ Abbey all of this just seems so surreal for I just saw you late Friday afternoon. My heart truly hurts from hearing of your passing and thinking about Mike, Kelly and Vincent. I'm going to miss our talks of our family, your beautiful face and your laughter. I will forever hold a special place in my heart for you my dear friend. I will keep your husband Mike, your two boys (Kelly & Vincent), your Mom along with the rest of your family and friends in my daily thoughts and prayers.

God has gained a beautiful angel!

“ Our thoughts & prayers go out to Abigail's family. We remember her as a cheerleader for Archbishop Neale School with our daughters, Tara & Ashley. Dianne remembers coaching her & that she was a joy to be around during the practices and games. It has been said, "Where ever a good soul has walked, there is a trail of beautiful memories". Such is the case with Abigail.
