“ My heart breaks for you. Adam is one of the children who I vividly remember for his gentle kindness and smile. My children (Colleen and Brian Stortzum, who died in 2015) grew up with him. Adam shared many classes with Colleen at Jenifer ES and I volunteered there. Adam was always sweet, kind, and gentle. He stood out to me as a favorite and I always enjoyed working with him.

After moved to Welcome, Adam showed up again and he still had that recognizable smile, gentleness, and kindness that I remembered from his earlier years. He was a good, faithful friend to my children.

My heart absolutely breaks to hear of his death and I send much love and healing energy to all of his family. The pain of losing a child is beyond words. My heart breaks for you and Adam. Please be gentle with yourselves and know that your love for Adam shined through him. I regretfully will not be able to join you for his service. My his soul peacefully rest and may all of you find comfort in the arms of angels.

Love and condolences,
Jean Wright

“ To Adam's Family, my prayers and sympathy to you all. I only knew Adam when he was 8 years old, and I babysat that little red headed fire ball for about a year. One of his teachers from Jenifer Elementary told me she always thought Adam was a Huckleberry Finn. meaning just an all boy with lot's of spirit! I will hold in my memories his vibrant personality, that after my son came up behind Adam, and was much like Adam, that I have learned to appreciate the spirit these boys have! Rest In Peace and have peace Rhonda and John. Rita Underwood

“ The first time I met Adam he was standing in my kitchen getting the 3rd degree from me as to why he wanted to date my daughter who was younger than him. He was very respectful and a very personable young man. Some time later it happens that my daughter Amber got Adam and Jessica together. She said they were meant for each other. The rest is history. My heart hurts for Adams family. No one should die this young. My deepest sympathies and prayers go to Jessica, his girls and the rest of the sympathy. Since Amber and Adam are both in heaven now I am sure she is looking out for him (after letting him know of course what she thinks). May God rest his soul.

“ All my prayers that Adam will now find the peace that he couldn't find in life. May he now be a guardian angel to his children, wife, mother, brother and family. All my prayers also to all his family and their loss, but remember a day will come for all of us to reunite with those we lose during our life times, it's the memories and the love we felt and still do feel for them that keep us going until that day arrives.
