

Alan Layne Jordan

July 24, 1964 - March 9, 2025

Alan Layne Jordan (July 24, 1964- March 9, 2025)

Alan Layne Jordan was born in Suitland, MD in 1964 to Donald and Elizabeth (Haney) Jordan. Alan was born a twin to a sister, Kathy Ann. Together, Alan and Kathy were inseparable as children where Alan would ensure that Kathy was well cared for. Alan got the most pleasure by hanging out with his older brother Gene, playing sports, and being mischievous. Alan attended Suitland High School before becoming a contractor working for his father building houses across Prince George's County. He honed his skills as a master artisan and started working for himself as a building contractor until the time of his death.

Alan was preceded in death by Donald Jordan, Sr. (dad), Elizabeth Ilene (Haney) Jordan (mom) Donald Jordan, Jr (Debbie) (brother) and is survived by David Wayne Jordan, Sr. (Heidi) (brother), Claude Eugene (Gene) Jordan (Tina) (brother), and Kathy Ann Jordan (twin sister). He also has five (5) half siblings, eight (8) nieces and nephews, as well as several ½ nieces and nephews from his half siblings.

He is also survived by his ex-wife Kimmy Blackwell and preceded in death by his longtime girlfriend Kelly Pandolfino. He is also preceded in death by his four-legged companion Bear [a husky chow]) with whom he hopes to reconnect at the Rainbow Bridge.

For nearly two decades, Alan waged an excruciating cyclical battle with addition. Our family battled by his side. The grief and loss we have endured over the years is indescribable. The family wants everyone to know that there is no amount of anger, disappointment or sadness that can dispel the love we all have for Alan, our brother, uncle, and friend.

Alan was deeply loved by so many. Alan was so much more than an addict. He was a son, brother, uncle, and friend. At his best, he was hard working, talented, loving, dedicated, and a man who loved his family dearly. So, as we grieve the loss of Alan and mourn the future without him here, may we all find a sense of relief knowing that the struggle is over. We can all begin to heal knowing that he is finally at peace with the Lord.

The family is having a memorial service for Alan on Monday, March 31 at 11:00 a.m. at Raymond Funeral Service, P.A., 5635 Washington Avenue, LaPlata, Maryland 20646. In lieu of flowers, donations are being accepted to the Hospice of the Chesapeake in Waldorf, MD. <https://www.hospicechesapeake.org/giving/donate-now/>

You can send a check made out to Hospice of the Chesapeake to: Hospice of the Chesapeake Foundation, John and Cathy Belcher Campus, 90 Ritchie Highway.

This organization provided the care and compassion that facilitated a peaceful transition to the next phase of Alan's life. Our family is grateful for all that their team provided in terms of medical care, pain management and emotion/spiritual support.

“ Alan has been in and out of my life since i was a little girl. (i'm 32 now) since him and my mother (Sharyl) had a long time friendship (relationship at one point). they may have both struggled with addiction BUT i know one thing, Alan made sure i had what i needed and gave me whatever he could whenever he was around. he was such a caring/kind person that would give the shirt off your back if you needed it. i'm sad to hear that he has passed, and my heart goes out to ALL of the family. but i'm hoping we all find peace in knowing he's no longer in pain or suffering.
