“ Although we had only known Al for a few short years, he was one of the best next door neighbors that we ever had in our years living on Williams Drive. We often told each other that we only wished that we had met each other years earlier. It was a sad day when we learned of Al’s cancer, and we all had hoped that, with treatments, this terrible disease would leave his body, if only for a little while longer.

But God, in His infinite Wisdom, used this life changing event, as He has done with so many others, to bring Al to Himself. The Bible says in Psalm 23 that, “Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.” Al took that lonely walk courageously, knowing at last that God was his Redeemer.

We know with total assurance that you are now in a much better place, your Heavenly Home. You have a new body now, one that is FREE from cancer and one that will never grow old. Yes, we mourn your absence, but we REJOICE in knowing that we will, one day, meet again. God Bless You.
