“ What a great guy he was. We will surely miss him. He was a great friend with a wonderful wife and family and 2 beautiful 50's cars, one he drove and the other a symbol of friendship and a tribute to both he and Clyde on the roof of Bert's Diner. Rest in Peace and prepare space up there for the rest of us. Love Bert and Margie

“ Dear Ginny and family,

My heart truly goes out to you at Alfred's sudden passing as I work on accepting my sudden loss of Thad in April. Prayer and family, and encouragement from others who know this sorrow, are keeping me going. I will ask God to bless you and your family in my daily prayers for help to go forward.

“ RIP Alfred. I have known Alfred since we were little children, when his mom and dad would come visit with my mom and dad. Our parents were really good friends ad now he will go visit them. I know they will have a grand reunion in heaven. He will ever so be missed by all who knew him.
