“ My Uncle Ali passed this morning (December 24, 2013). He was 90. He died in his sleep, in his home, with his dog at his side. He is now with his beloved wife Elinore. He was a good man, strong willed, even tempered, and passionate about those he loved and the things he loved. Before there were government programs, there was family. Ali and Elinore were my family and they helped my mom raise 5 kids on her small salary with no child support. He taught me compassion, honor and loyalty. I will miss him. /Jack Benigni
