My condolences and prayers Alice's family. She was truly a unique person. She was always willing to help and had no problem thanking you for whatever you would do for her. She was one of the last people that I knew that cooked on her old wood stove and had no problem throwing a log or two in it even when it wasn't needed. Alice will truly be missed and lthe laughter that she brought to many will always be remembered. Rest In Isweet peace,
