

Amanda Lee Wagner

October 7, 1977 - July 7, 2025

Amanda Lee Wagner, 47, of Newburg, Maryland, passed away on Monday, July 7, 2025 at her home.

Born on October 7, 1977 in St. Petersburg, Florida, she was the daughter of the late Norman G. Hamill and Tracey M. Estep. Amanda earned her Associates Degree in Medical Billing and Coding and worked in the Medical Field for several years. She then decided that she needed to be a stay-at-home mom and care for her family. Her love for her family was unmatched, and she poured her heart into raising her children and being present in every way that mattered. Amanda loved cooking and baking every dish possible, gardening and beekeeping, Nature, caring for animals and cheering on the Pittsburgh Steelers football team. She was fascinated by the mysteries of the universe, the spiritual world, tarot, and the afterlife. You could often find her watching The Golden Girls or The Dead Files, smiling or sharing something thoughtful (and often hilarious) with the people she loved. She loved music, especially Fleetwood Mac. Stevie Nicks was basically the love of her life. The party truly didn't start until she was there. With her fiery and loving personality, she lit up every single room she was in. And it all was done with a cup of coffee in hand.

In addition to her parents, Amanda was preceded in death by her son Ryan Murphy, and her brothers George Hamill and Alan Hamill.

Amanda is survived by her spouse Carlos Murphy; daughter Sequoia Rhyannen Colmenarez-Hamill and her husband Eduardo Colmenarez-Montilla; daughter Rylee Eileen Murphy, sons Liam Gerald Murphy and Jack Norman Murphy; grandson Rhyan Colmenarez-Hamill; her beloved siblings; other relatives and friends.

A Celebration of Amanda's Life will be held on Monday, July 21st. Visitation will be from 1:00p - 3:00p and the service will begin at 3:00p at Raymond Funeral Service, P.A., 5635 Washington Avenue, La Plata, Maryland 20646.

“ I am still trying to come to grips that Amanda is actually gone she was a second daughter to me and grew up with my daughter and son and her mother was my best friend. Amanda and Jennifer were both quite feisty to say the least as was my son so Tracey and I had our hands full lol but we loved them with all of our souls. I loved her and I love her family and just know if it is within my power to do something to help you know I will. Love all of you bunches ... see you soon!

Amanda Lee was the daughter of my late sister Tracey. Her Uncle Ronnie and I spent the whole day of Oct 7th, 1977 with her walking up and down the halls of the Hospital hoping to bring on the Labor. We got there @9a and ended up having to leave around 6p. We went home to finish packing our Camper and Boat to spend two weeks in Dunnellon. We didn't get to meet her until returning. While gone I crocheted an Orange and yellow Afghan. A couple of years later when we went back to the Campground a man came up and asked how my niece was. I was surprised and said how do you know that I have one. He laughed and said wellll you told everybody here about her and couldn't wait to go home to see her. When back we went to Grammys house where she was watching her new Granddaughter. She said she's sleeping and don't wake her up. Lol. It didn't matter I woke her up. She was the absolute sweetest little girl and had that firey red head of long lockets. She loved coming to visit us at our home on the beach 🏖️ She loved us very much and likewise. RIParadise Mandy Poo !!! You beat you beat us to Heaven and you are no longer suffering ✨😌💛 Keep everybody on their toes and make them all laugh with your hilarious sense of humor. Always in my thoughts when cooking, baking and having our fave cup of coffee. I sincerely miss our back and forth texts every morning 📧 You were a hoot~~~forever in my heart. See you on the other side. Love Auntie Dana

Sequoia, what a strong Mother you had that dealt with so much in life. I know in my heart that you have gratitude, love and appreciation. She is missed very much. I know that she will always be there for you for the strength. She raised a Warrior. Thank you for being her daughter / best friend 💞 Love and light Auntie Dana
