

Ann Marie Demaio

September 27, 1941 - January 27, 2026

We are celebrating the homecoming of our mom, grandma, great Grandma, Miss Ann Marie Evans-DeMaio, who passed peacefully on the morning of 27 January 2026.

She was born 27 September 1941, in Washington DC. To Henry and Marie Evans.

Miss Ann earned a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from Old Dominion University.

Ann was an Accountant, Bus driver, Electric company worker, Postal worker, a childcare worker and even a famous Playboy Bunny. She was a quick-witted, hardworking, woman that loved working with children and animals. She could sew an outfit with her eyes shut, then crochet a blanket while sharing old stories and playing cards.

She survived by her son, Darryl and daughters Cheryl and LaShawn. Three grandchildren, Darryl Wayne, Chyna and Azia, great-grandson, Jordan.

Raymond Funeral Home in La Plata, MD will be taking care of all cremation services.

Tribute Wall

GE

“ "A Winter Twilight, Angelina Weld Grimke (1880-1958)

*A silence slipping around like death,
Yet chased by a whisper, a sigh, a breath;
One group of trees, lean, naked and cold,
One path that knows where the corn flowers were;
Lonely, apart, unyielding, one fir;
And over it softly leaning down,
One star that I loved ere the fields went brown."*

Since the time Africans were brought to these shores our family dynamics became sorted. This was not of our doing, however, it demanded from us immense perseverance. It made the small branches in the family tree cherished, and eased the pain of the broken ones.

*As it is my heart is broken and my pain lingers at the loss of my sister.
Rest in peace Ann Marie, 'til we meet again, in glory.*

Gregory

---

Gregory H. Evans - March 03 at 03:08 AM

LY

“ In her short time with us, Ms. Ann became a fixture in the dietary department. She kept us all on our toes and brightened our day every time she stopped by (which was often!). Known for her sharp wit and her love for sharing family photos/ stories and career milestones, she brought a unique energy to our day. Her frequent visits were a highlight for our staff, and her absence will be deeply felt. Our thoughts are with her family and wishing you peace during this time.

*GOD bless you,
Latisha Yates & The Dietary Department*

---

Latisha Yates - January 30 at 04:53 AM