“ Ann and I were next door neighbors for 27 years, friends for 31. I have the wonderful memories of our walking our dogs together and the chats we had.

Ann was an angel in disguise, she helped me with my husband as his Alzheimer's gripped him more and more.

“ Ann introduced me to my first grilled cheese sandwich when I was about 10 years old. It's been my favorite “go to” sandwich ever since. Every time I have one, I think of Ann. She was the sweetest, nicest sister in law ever. Betty Kitts

“ Ann was a wonderful neighbor when we lived next door in Maryland. She baby sat our oldest son when I was expecting our next baby because I was having so much trouble finding someone when I was working. Chris & Dan loved you so much. You were Mommie Mudd to them. I know your family is missing you a lot!

“ Grandma, we are so lucky to have had you in our lives for so many wonderful years. Thank you for being such a caring and loving grandmother. I will miss our phone calls and hearing you tell me you love me. Thank you for being such an amazing Great-Grandmother to William. The bond the two of you had was strong and I know he will miss you dearly. I love you so much and know that you are doing your adorable little dance to Bad, Bad, Leroy Brown! I can see it now. Get Daddy on the heavenly dance floor with you for me! One of your girls, Chrisite
