“ June was a sweet, lovely lady and always a pleasure to visit. She made the most delicious fried chicken. I still miss that aroma. She will be greatly missed.

My most sincere condolences to her family.

“ Mom June was a dear close friend and relative for many years. We would share recipes, thoughts on flowers we would want to plant, and books to read. One day, many years ago, we drove all around Southern Maryland in a beat up Nissan pick-up truck with Travis in diapers. We laughed and laughed!! I will miss our conversations and friendship.
