“ Jim was a best friend to my parents, Eddie and Joyce. They shared many great vacations, road trips and interests. He had a great sense of humor that we all enjoyed. I remember many afternoons sitting on the beach at Ocean City or on the hotel porch listening to him reminisce about the past. My children fondly referred to him as "Mr Dinger" as he was always joking and carrying on with the kids. He was such a kind and gentle man and I am so grateful our family was touched by his friendship and love. Rest in peace Jim

“ We had some of the best summer vacations at the Majestic Hotel in Ocean City amongst many great times, Rest easy Pop and I'll see you and Gee mom on the other side. I 'll have a honey and butter sandwich for lunch as you raised the best honey in your bee hives and use to make me that for lunch as a child.

Love your eldest grandson Robbie/George Pyle III
