

Barbara Jean Coburn

September 9, 1948 - June 20, 2021

Barbara Jean Coburn, age 72 of La Plata, Maryland died June 20, 2021.

Barbara Jean was a homemaker and life-long resident of Charles County. She was a Waitress at Pancakes Plus in her earlier years. She enjoyed eating crabs, playing LOTTO, and watching the Washington Redskins, the Capitals, the Nationals, and Orioles games. She loved her neighbors (she was often referred to as “Mayor of Caroline Drive”), taking care of her sisters, cooking for and spending time with her great grandchildren, and decorating for every holiday.

She was the daughter of Archie Thomas Welch and Hazel Lillian Welch. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her daughter, Joanne Lusk; her brothers, Lee Welch and Joe Welch; and her sisters, Linda Welch, Polly Strak, and Margie Welch.

She is survived by her husband, John Begovich; her granddaughter, Kelly Pilkerton (John Allan); her great grandchildren, Presleigh Pilkerton and Corbin Pilkerton; her son-in-law, Tony Lusk; and her nieces and nephews.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Hospice of Charles County, 2505 Davis Road, Waldorf, Maryland 20603.

“ It is with heavy heart to say goodbye to Barbara Jean for now. I have been a good friend of hers since we were teenagers. Eleven years ago I moved in the same complex as her and John. Not knowing all of the rules and regulations, BJ was my rock and showed me all the ends and outs and from then on out, we became like a close knit family. I will be forever grateful for her blessings and kindness she demonstrated to me.
