

Barbara Mae Fisher

October 2, 1923 - July 18, 2021

Barbara Mae Fisher, 97, passed away on July 18, 2021.

She was born to the late James and Blanche Hughes on October 2, 1923 in Big Island, Virginia.

A life-long sports lover, she played for her high school basketball, track, and softball teams with the highlight of her high school years playing for the high school girls' basketball county championship.

While growing up on a farm, she knew that was not the life she wanted. So, upon graduating from high school, she took off for the big city of Washington, DC. She quickly landed a job as a bookkeeper for a local savings and loan. It was there that she met and married the late Joseph Fisher in 1946. They spent most of their married life in the Silver Spring, Maryland area.

Barbara's passions were golf, entertaining and watching the Washington Redskins on Sunday afternoons. Barbara was president of the Nine-Holer Golf League of Leisure World for several years, capping her golf career by winning the Nine Hole Golf Championship. Barbara continued to play golf and bowl into her early 90's before declining health brought an end to her playing sports.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her loving husband in 2006.

Barbara is survived by her son, James; her daughter-in-law, Irene; and two grandchildren, Kevin and Michele.

Funeral services will be private.

Barbara made many friends over the years and leaves nothing but beautiful memories.

“ Barbara was a wonderful neighbor who always had ice cream for my young grandson. We both loved her very much.
