“ Although I have not seen her for years, I remember her visiting my parents years ago. I will never forget when our band (Billy played guitar), practiced in her home and her face lite up when I sang a Beatles song. She was always kind and thoughtful. Especially putting up with us and all that life threw at her. God bless her and you all.

“ MEMORIES OF MOM

I was so blessed to have shared a life-time of memories with Mom. She was a loving and beautiful soul that touched so many people. She was vibrant, full of life and always eager to entertain and go places. Some of the fondest memories during my childhood were of her singing, playing the piano (for hours on end), dancing, spending time at the beach and even occasionally going trail-riding on horseback. In our later years, the memories were mostly of travelling domestically and abroad, with family and friends. She had a penchant for cruising.

It is sad to realize that she won't be here any longer, but each and every day I'll cherish and celebrate those memories of Mom, for the rest of my life.

There is a short poem I came across that portrays my sentiments at this time. The author is unknown, but it goes:

*“Those we love don't go away,
they walk beside us every day.*

*Unseen, unheard but always near,
still loved, still missed,
and held so dear.”*

“ I was saddened to hear about Barbara's decline and passing. I've known her for almost 45 years and Barbara was always fun to be with. She and I were roommates on a transatlantic cruise for 14 nights and just giggled and had a good time together. She was up for whatever people suggested; she was full of life always willing to do whatever would make someone else happy. And, she didn't let any grass grow under her feet. She was always on the go enjoying life. So, Barbara I will miss you and I send my condolences to the family. I'm sorry, but she's in God's hands and doing better now.
