“ I have fond memories of Barbara; she was always very welcoming, funny, caring, she would talk to you about anything. The "neighborhood Mom" is what she was. The unconditional love she had for her family was inspirational, she would go above and beyond to make sure they were all taken care of. Her boys meant the world to her. My heart goes out to Randy, Scot and J.D. May God bless you and your family in this time of grief. ~Shannon Whittaker~
