“ Terry and Cheryl, Being able to visit Barbara 1 and 1/2 weeks before she passed was my greatest memory of all. Having that time with you 2, Lorraine, Barbara and I was the most precious moment I could have ever asked for. Barbara was so lucky to have you two beautiful daughters, to help and care so loving for her. My prayers are with you both on the day of her burial and my heart with be with you both.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Your Mom was a hoot! When you turn us around one night and took me back to your house just to prove that your Mom had wiped down the tv remote and cleaned the ashtray. We were gone like 5 minutes. Lol. Her car that smelled like syrup. Love Linda.

Yes, Linda, you could eat off her floor! We in the community will miss her sweeping the sidewalks. She will be greatly missed!
