“ God of loving kindness, whose mercies cannot be numbered, in our grief we turn to you because you are the God of love. Accept our prayers on behalf of your servant Barbara, and grant her an entrance into the land of light and joy, in the communion of your saints.

And most merciful God, whose wisdom is beyond our understanding, deal graciously with Barbara's family and friends in their grief. Surround them with your love, that they may not be overwhelmed by their loss, but have confidence in your love, and strength to face the days to come.

*We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Savior.
Amen.*

“ Nancy, Susan, Vivian, Ronnie and the rest of your families, your mom/Memaw loved you all so much, she didn't want to leave you but when she heard two voices calling her name she knew it was time, Jesus was bringing her home to be with him and Uncle Ronnie! I can imagine her running to those Heavenly gates as fast as she could, taking one last look back and blowing you a kiss while still running saying I love you and back around to continue jumping into the arms of Uncle Ronnie. I hope you take peace knowing they're back together once again. We love you, Patty, Tim and Phillip

“ Lucas and I will be with your family in spirit for your mom's service as you all were with us for my mom's. Aunt Barbara had to sort of become my "go to" after I could no longer speak with my mom due to her dementia. Thank you all for sharing her with me. I know this is a hard time for you all and am sending my prayers and love to each of you in a virtual hug. God has Aunt Barbara now...well, he always did!

I am so sorry for all her family including those of us who considered ourselves her family. Barbara was a one of a kind lady! No one ever was in need when Barbara was around. It breaks my heart to know we can't celebrate her life all together. I understand but am saddened to not be there with everyone who loves her. Please know you re all in my constant thoughts and prayers. Love to all.

To the Prasser Family,

You have lost a sweet and devoted member of your family. Barbara was so dedicated to everything she did. She dearly loved St. James' and its members. No matter what the task, she was there to help with love. She will deeply be missed.

What a beautiful reflection of God's love. Love you all.
