“ Dear Katie and Chet, I will always remember the wonderful European cruise we took together with you, your mom and your family. She was the perfect travel partner, and I was so very fortunate to call her one of my best friends. She was so smart and witty with a great sense of humor--I thoroughly enjoyed her company! Barbara and I shared another wonderful adventure together when we traveled to the south of France and rented a house there for 2 weeks. Oh, the stories we could tell! I will miss her friendship more than words can express, but I feel so fortunate that I will always have cherished memories of that friendship in my heart.

With My Deepest Heartfelt Sympathies,

Elaine Gilbert
