“ Our families were close neighbors and friends for over 30 years in Clinton. We each moved away from Clinton and saw each other off and on over the years but not often. Then about two years ago I started visiting Betty when she moved to Waldorf and later to La Plata. I started taking her out to lunch and we would roam around Waldorf to the mall and often to her favorite place "The Christmas Store." Betty loved to roam that store - we didn't buy much when we were there but it gave her a chance to get out of her apartment and later her room at the Assisted Living place. Betty forgot things but never the things that mattered - her family. Every time I was with her sometime during each visit she would talk about someone in her family. I will miss those times.

Don't be said when you think of your mom, grandmother or great grandmother. Just think of the good times you had together. She is with your dad, grandfather or great grandfather. She is at peace. Just think of her looking down at each one of you and watching you so be good. Rest in peace Betty. We will all be thinking of you and that includes me. LOVE YOU.

“ I knew Ms. Betty when I started working at the assisted living last year. She was a very sweet and generous friend. We used to share stories, take walks, finish puzzles. She even tried to teach me how to crochet. Also, we put together flower arrangements. We did so much together. I would come over and bring my grandma's special blue berry muffins and banana nut bread and Mrs. Betty and the other residents loved them. God has a very special place in heaven for her. She will be dearly missed not only by me but everyone who knew her and loved her. Rest in peace and I am glad I got to know a very sweet and talented person.
