“ Betty and Cicero were as much a part of my life as anyone I know. Having lived next door to my parents for almost 70 years, my life is filled with memories of our two families and all of the great memories and experiences we share and I'm sure Tina and John will draw on those recollections in this period of loss and grief. My love for her is undiminished by her passing and my memories are somehow richer now. I miss you Betty and I love you. Go in peace now and be with "Honey."
