“ *To my dearest and oldest friend and family.
We have shared many years of laughter and gatherings. Mau (aka) Betty will always have a special place in my heart, always made me feel like one of her own. Love to all and let peace carry you all knowing that she is now in a much better place.
All my love Denise*

“ Grandma you were such a beautiful soul full of love for all those you met. You were a spitfire and could always make me laugh . I will never forget all our talks about what we were each having for dinner and what was happening on General Hospital. You were like a second mom too me and you will be missed so much . Love you always Donna
