“ *Betty, we were introduced by Suzie East many years ago at new life, and I loved sitting with you over the last few years. You were a good Christian woman who impacted so many lives. You were a blessing to those around you. Your family is lucky to have had you, and I'm praying that God will comfort those left behind. When New Life opens back up, your presence will be greatly missed. Love,
Terri*

“ Betty's passing comes a such a shock to all of us because she was so full of life and love it seemed it would keep her going forever - but that love will certainly remain in my heart forever. She was a constant in our lives. It seems like yesterday that my mother and Betty, my mother's sister Mary Pat, and my mom's best friend Win Stokes were in a frenzy cooking up a Southern Maryland feast for Archy's and my wedding reception and yet that was over 41 years ago. Betty had a stash of amazing recipes and her canned beets and jellies still occupy my pantry. I remember riding the bus with David and Ruthie and thinking Ruthie was so beautiful and then when I met her mom I could see the smile and the same beauty - they made a beautiful mother-daughter portrait in my mind. Betty and my mother were a force together at the farm and she and my mother created amazing feasts for all the Port Tobacco Players cast parties and the many other celebrations at Lucknow. When my mother passed Betty and I just held each other and sobbed - the depth of that loss and now Betty's is staggering - I hope she and my mother are together as the brightest stars in the night sky. Like my mother, Betty defined a devotion to family - Betty loved unconditionally and gave of herself throughout her life. I will miss her joy, her smile and her friendship- she leaves a huge void in my life but will forever fill my heart.
