

Brandon Fletcher

April 21, 1997 - November 1, 2012

Brandon Michael Fletcher of Port Tobacco, MD died on Thursday, November 1, 2012 at Children's National Medical Center in Washington, DC. He was 15 years old.

Brandon was a young man who gave back to his community with toy drives for Children's Hospital and blankets for the homeless. He was working on starting a non-profit organization called "Hope for Brandon" to help provide gas cards to bone marrow transplant families. His words of encouragement were "Never Give Up!"

Son of the living William Edward Fletcher, Jr. and the living Danielle Suzanne Williams Fletcher

Predeceased by his grandparents, William Fletcher and Michael and Susan Williams; his uncle, Jonathan Fletcher II, and Aaron Fletcher; and his uncles Jonathan Fletcher and Randy Williams.

Survived by his parents; three brothers, Corey Fletcher, Jonathan Fletcher II, and Aaron Fletcher; his grandmother, Debra Fletcher; his aunts and uncles, Gary Williams, Tracey and Michael Fletcher, Richard and Leslie Galifa, Kathleen

Fletcher, Shandi Jenkins, Christina Knoblock; and his cousins, Shannon Holton, Percy Holton, Ashley Wedding, Brian Edwards, Jr., Mya Edwards, James Fletcher, Nathan Knoblock, Amanda Knoblock, Leah Grinder, Nicolis Galifa, Laura Fletcher, Mathew Fletcher, Christina Camp, John Williams III, Jessica Annadale, David Annadale, Jenna Annadale, Laura Williams, Melissa Williams, Amanda Qualters, James Williams II, John Williams II, Joseph Williams, and John Williams

Visitation: Thursday, November 8, 2012 from 4-8PM at New Life Wesleyan Church, 9690 Shepherd's Creek Place, La Plata, MD 20646

Funeral Service: Friday, November 9, 2012 at 11AM at New Life Wesleyan Church

Clergy: Rev. Tom Cogle & Dallas Cogle

Interment: St. Charles Cemetery in Glymont, MD

Pallbearers: Damien Price, Debra Fletcher, Corey Fletcher, Jonathan Fletcher, William Fletcher Jr., and Danielle Fletcher

Memorial contributions may be made to Hope for Brandon (8650 Mulberry Grove Place, Port Tobacco, MD 20677).

Tribute Wall

“ Brandon Fletcher

October 08, 2023 at 10:45 PM

“ Brandon Fletcher

October 04, 2023 at 03:12 PM