“ My prayers to the family at this difficult time. Brenda had such a kind spirit and will be truly missed by us all. I can say for myself it was a pleasure coming to Loffler and see her smiling face greeting us as we enter the building. She will always have a special place in our hearts. Just try and stay strong and cling to each other for comfort and in the Lord .

“ Brenda made it her mission to do as much good, for as many people as she could. When Brenda helped you, YOU were the only thing in the world to her. She spread an incredible amount of love & positive energy through our community at the Loffler Senior Activity Center. It was a blessing that 70 of us could swaddle her in Loffler Love at her retirement gathering on Feb. 1. To Danny and the rest of the family, my prayers are with you. May warm memories of loving times spent together help to begin to heal your hurting hearts.
