“ I will always remember Brian as a wonderful co-worker. We use to always talk Washington Nationals baseball. We even saw each other at one game. He was kind and caring, he knew his job well, was thorough and efficient, and a joy to work with. I am very sad to hear of his passing. May God bless and comfort his wife, daughter, and the rest of his family during this extremely difficult time.

“ Somebody has to go first, so I will. Some souls touch us for a brief time, and others for a lifetime. That was Brian. I've been his "older" cousin his whole life and watched him grow into a really terrific man, a great husband, and a loving father. He is the person everyone will say "why Brian? why the good guys?" We can't understand why, but we can be assured that Brian is healed now completely and is in heaven shaking hands with the greats of football, baseball, hockey, and - perhaps - even wrestling (which I teased he and Brad about often). Hug Brian close, Gram, Grace, and all our family's heavenly angels. Love you, Brian. Your "cool" cousin, Deb.

*Ron and I are so very sorry to hear that Brian lost his battle with cancer. You are in our thoughts and prayers and have been since we heard he was sick. Our prayer is that you will feel the comfort and gather the strenght that God has promise in times like this. He lives on in in his sweet little Jilly. If there is anything we can do, please call us (301) 643-0613.
Blessings to all,
Ron and Joan*

I didn't know Brian but I followed his story while my own father was also living with cancer. I am heartbroken to hear of his passing. He worked so hard and was so courageous. I hope his daughter Jillian will someday understand how much he loved her and fought for her. It is with deep sadness that I offer my condolences. I am glad his suffering has ended. May your family be held in the arms of those that love you in the months to come.

Marcus and I will be praying for his family. Brian was a great guy to work with, and the last time I saw him at work he said hey Stacey were you been I have not seen you in a minute and it's good to see you. He always had something good say. Brian will be missed, and to his family just know that we are praying for you all.

*Kelly & Jillian, I only found out last night about Brian's passing and the illness that took him. He was one of my best friends throughout high school and beyond. After I left the Reserves at Andrews in 2000 and went to active duty, we lost touch with each other and we both went on to bigger and better things (both of us starting families). On occasion, we would catch up on Facebook but never really stayed in touch and for that I am truly sorry. Melissa filled me in on what happened and everyone who was there with him at the end last night. I wanted to say how truly sorry I am for not being there for him like the rest of our gang. I wanted you to know that I loved him like a brother growing up and I still do. If there is anything I can do for you guys, please let me know. Even though I live across the country in Washington state (stationed in Spokane), I will do the best I can. Melissa has my number if you would like to get in touch with me.
From the bottom of my heart, I am so sorry.*

I didn't know Brian personally. My daughter went to school with Jillian. I met Kelly through Job matchers. I would see him at school events and PTA meetings. I am so sorry for your loss. My prayers are with the family. Shawnree Baker and Madison

I have know Brian since our Dr. Mudd ES years then again all throughout our HS career. He & Brad were always together and always the nicest boys you could know. Over the last couple of years and with our FB tags, we have noticed we have been at the same places at the same time. Whether its at a WWE event, he and Brad at the local MCW events or even saw him and met up with him at a Country Concert at Jiffy Lube Live just before he was diagnosed this past summer. He would always come say Hi.. We would talk and talk. Brian is one of the Best Men Around and his Beautiful little girl was absolutely the Light of His World.. I will truly miss not seeing him.

Kelly, Jillian, and of, the rest of the Ashby family....my thoughts and prayers are with you through this time of sorrow. Brian was a great person with a big heart. He left an imprint on everyone he knew. I know that he is sporting those beautiful wings proudly and looking on after you. Jillian and Kelly, he will continue to be all around you. When you feel a sense of calm that will be him wrapping those magnificent wings around you. Hugs to all!

A old colleague at the Census Bureau just told me the sad news of Brian's passing. I'm sorry that the news came too late for me to pay my respects in person. I was Brian's first boss at the Census Bureau back when it was unusual to have a male secretary. It was clear from Brian's first day on the job that he was smart, efficient, hard-working and very capable of doing more challenging work. He was also fun to be around and he taught me a lot about fantasy football and wrestling. My deepest condolences to Kelly and the family.
