“ Of all the people in my life, I never thought you would be one to go this early. We kept putting off spending more time together- time really caught up to us. I remember when I first moved to Maryland and had to ride the bus. I had forgotten how cute you were back then. You didn't care much for school but you found your way and did amazing things. 31 years of friendship shouldn't end this way. I'll never forget you. Love always, Laela

“ I’m still in disbelief that my brother is gone. My deepest condolences to the family. We shared so many memories together over the last 20 years from being deployed together in Qatar, to many family visits in Maryland and Florida. Our families grew up together, we laughed together and those memories we will cherish forever. Our adventures in the middle east, as we travel between compounds “Secure 2 Secure”, to our masonic interactions “on the square my brother, look well to the east”, to our long phone conversations that always had us cracking up to the point we were both crying in laughter. My best friend and brother. I’m not going to say goodbye, but until we meet again, the memories will never fade, Rest in Peace my brother (aka SMFM)!

“ This thing of ours.... that's how it started 26 years ago. Just three kids from different sides of the tracks... in no time we grew to six, and there you had it. The crew... The Inner Circle. Scorsese couldn't write it any better, or any crazier. The constant nights riding around for no other reason than because we could. Whether it was the Elantra, the Mazda, or Brandon's wagon and never without a Face Mob or Biggie CD. Wings at Damons, churros at Bush Gardens, burgers in Delaware, or your Dad's famous ribs. You were always down to go for it or anywhere at the drop of a hat. Even if it closes in 10 minutes it was always, "We can make it." I'm sure we broke a few records. I know we break speeding laws. We just chalked it up to stories we'd tell the kids and grandkids once we were old. The story wasn't supposed to end this way. We were just talking about taking another road trip. No need for me to navigate anymore since B still don't know his left from right. GPS was going to get us there. It's far too many memories and I'm grateful for all of them. You'll be missed bro, more than you know. I'll always be there for Cat and the Fam.

“ This is unimaginable and I'm at a loss for words. The last 17 years hasn't been easy but it's been worth it. Thank you for giving me the gift of our gorgeous girl. I will continue guiding her on her path (helping her continue to see her to her dream of becoming a surgeon). I will remind her of your sense of humor and stories of your times overseas. Rest easy Brian.

“ From the time I heard of your passing I have been in shock! I just can't believe it! We were just chatting a few weeks ago and texting and my wife even remembered our last conversation! You will truly be missed brother! You have been there no matter what for the past 19 years and I could call you anytime to just chat and laugh! I can't have those moments anymore and that hurts! I will miss our many laughs! It won't be the same as I feel I should be calling you right now! Rest easy SMFM! Brothers for life! #PumpTechCrew

“ To my Prince Hall Brother, I will truly miss you, not only were a member of our lodge, my wife and I considered you as a member of the Allen family. Because she was a Johnson before marriage, she found a little brother from a different mother in you. Heaven has called home a wonderful man. Until we meet on the other shore, our love is eternal.
