

Brian David Page, Jr.

May 25, 1979 - April 24, 2016

Brian David Page, Jr., age 36 of Waldorf, Maryland, died April 24, 2016 at Washington Hospital Center in Washington, DC.

Brian was a carpenter for building contractors for 20 plus years. He loved his woodworking, his music (especially his guitar for which he won an award). He also enjoyed yard work/landscaping and working out on his fitness equipment.

He was the son of Brian David Page, Sr. and step mom, Lisa. He is also survived by his mother, Stacie Jan DeVault; his beloved companion, Cathy Stewart; his paternal grandmother, Shirley L. Page; his sister, Mandi Wilson and husband Jason; his nephews, Mitchell, Alex, and Jesse; and his nieces, Kiersten and Clover.

Friends received on Thursday, May 5, 2016 from 5-8PM with Memorial Service at 7PM at Raymond Funeral Service Chapel, 5635 Washington Avenue, La Plata, Maryland 20646. Interment will be private at a later date.

“ I am so sad to learn about Brian's passing. Although I haven't seen him in a long time, I spent a lot of time with him when he was very young. I will cherish the memories of those times, and his big beautiful brown eyes. Several years ago I did get to see him play his guitar and I loved seeing him play. Rest easy my cousin, little Brian.

The last time i saw you -you were just a baby you and your parents shared a home with Pat and I and Mike and Tony. I remember you as a adorable loving child with the longest eyelashes I have ever seen and the biggest brown eyes. you were loved by many it seems you never changed from that loving baby I remember. May the Good Lord love and hold you in his loving arms. my thoughts and prayer go out to all that love you and to your parents may God bless you in this time of sorrow

“ I was so sorry to hear about Brian's passing. He was a very special friend and relative by marriage and we spent lots of time talking, laughing and reminiscing about family members and life in general. Recently, Brian remodeled my basement and did an excellent job, his talents in the field of carpentry were excellent. Brian will surely be missed. prayers for his family.
