“ The last time I saw you you were just 2 years old you were at ur aunt Lou Ann's farm and we were with ur grandmother and you were scared of the cows since then I ended up living my own life but I never stopped worrying about you and even though I wish I did things differently I know that you would have understood when you were born I was in highschool and had no clue what I was doing little lone how to be a uncle but as I grew up I often regreted not being there for you but now you get to meet your grandmother who passed away last year and I know that one day when my time comes I will see you to just always know that I always cared and that I will never forgive myself for not being there
