“ Butch was a man of a few words. He was always a very nice person. He will be missed by his family and friends. Our family will miss him dearly.

“ Butch was a good person and someone that I was glad to call a friend. He was the type of friend that you know you could call in the middle of the night if you had a flat tire and needed a jack. You could count on him showing a short time later with the jack and a cup a coffee. One of the things that made him special was his self assured attitude. He was the embodiment of the adage better to try and fail than to not try at all. I am truly going to miss my friend Butch; he was truly a man that was the salt of the earth. I am surely a better person for knowing him, and the world is a lesser place without him.
