“ My condolences to all who knew and loved Carl. I wish I could be there to pay my last respects, but unfortunately I am ill. There is comfort in knowing that he has rejoined his loving wife Rhonda and is singing in a grand choir of angels.

Shared many Barbershop singing times with Carl at concerts, competitions, and fun rehearsals. He and his wife Rhonda joined us in North Carolina a few years ago at the beach. They took our granddaughters shopping and they loved it. Many memories that fill our hearts. He will be missed by The Doyles especially.

“ I enjoyed singing baritone with Carl in the Southern Mix barbershop chorus and liked his interest in restored Hudsons since my first car was a '46 Hudson. He was such an enthusiastic asset to the chorus. He will be missed.

“ Carl was am amazing person to know and made so many contributions to this world. His love for Rhonda and the Hudson world and his singing and teaching at Lackey were all beautiful parts of his life - God bless his children and family at this time - it was wonderful to see his beautiful family at Rhonda's funeral when he needed all of you the most. My prayers are with you. Dana McClure Kline
