“ A beautiful person inside and out. She could enter the room with one of her creations and I would wonder how anyone could create such beauty. Your talent inspired many of us HI girls to try "different" and make it work. Your gorgeous handiwork graced our home and our daughters' weddings....you will ALWAYS be remembered in our hearts

“ Carol was a special friend and mentor to me for many years starting in the early 1970s. I have wonderful memories of spending time with her and her family. My children adored her as did every child that came in contact with Carol. She had a special way of making people feel accepted and loved. So many memories I could share and so many wonderful memories that I will always treasure of Carol and Joe and Jay, her parents (I learned how to can vegetables with Carol and Geraldine), the many parties that Carol lent her incredible gift of making everything seem special and beautiful, with Billy, Diane and their beautiful children and extended families.

My prayers of comfort go out to Jay, Tanner, Billy, Diane and all the legions of nieces and nephews, extended family and friends that loved Carol. Heaven will seem so much more beautiful now that this special lady has joined the Lord.
