“ It is so hard to find the words at finding out this brave and beautiful person is no longer with us. I just want her family to know that she mattered to so many of us. My deepest and most sincere condolences. I just found out this morning that Carrie went home to be with Jesus... I was on Facebook and saw the word, "triplet" and said "wow..." I haven't seen a post on Facebook in about a month from Carrie!" "Brave" "Courageous" "Loving" "Special" "Family" "Love" were all words that describe words that described her or the most important aspects of her life. I am so glad to have gotten to know her and will keep her family which was her treasure in my thoughts and prayers... Big hugs to all...

“ I am so sadden to hear the news this weekend of Carrie's passing. We met a few years ago at Bottom of the Hill Restaurant. I was going through breast cancer myself and she walked up to me and started a conversation, we exchanged phone numbers and the rest is history instantly became friends. She fought a long hard battle. Life is not fair! She should be here watching John grow up, her daughters baby birth. I get so emotional when I hear of this as she had so much love to give. I am blessed to have been able to call her a friend. I am so sorry for your tremendous loss to her family.

“ Carrie was sixteen when we first met, a tenacious and independent young woman who knew what she wanted in life. The things she wanted were simple; animals, children and a loving partner. Although times could be difficult she was not a person to be discouraged or depressed, instead she faced problems resolutely with intelligence and strength. I feel privileged to have known her. We didn't talk or get together often, but when we did it was as if we had talked just the week before. Talking on the phone would be at least an hour, usually longer and our shopping trips were marathon; we had so much fun.

Carrie lived for her daughters, son, grandchildren and mother but finding Pat, her partner and love of her life made her shine. I've been so happy for her these past years, her life busy and rewarding. My heart goes out to you all, as mine has been heavy with pain; I know your pain is infinite. Lately, when the tears come, I think of her laugh; so distinctively Carrie. Her infectious laugh, her expression, her beautiful laughing eyes wide and I can't help but smile with the tears. She was so proud of all of you, her family, her heart.

My prayers are constantly with you, her family she loved infinitely,

“ Patrick and Family,

Carrie was a beautiful person, inside and out. I feel honored to have known her and spent time with her. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this very difficult time. I pray that you will all find comfort in the beautiful memories and the many lives she has touched. Carrie will be missed by all of her Sisters at Heart. Her strength and courage will always be an inspiration to all of us. May she rest in peace.

“ I have had the pleasure to work with this amazing woman. We have shared so many memories of love and laughter. Carrie was a caring loving mother to her children. She was that mother hen who protected her chicks. She had the biggest heart, always wanting to help anyone in need. Pat was the perfect fit for her, they had best love for each other and well nerving of each other. I am going to miss her, but I know that she is resting easy. Heaven has gain an angel, until we meet again my friend. May the family find peace and strength. RIP

“ We have beautiful memories of our dodo when she was a baby & toddler. We spent many fun, wonderful & precious times with her and her parents that has helped shape our lives and I wanting to have a big family. It was awesome to visit with her, Pat & her family at her home, for them to visit with us & our family in NC. We had planned to visit again and are saddened we couldn't, due to my husband's health problems. She was an awesome & special person and we're sure she is an awesome & special angel that left us to soon 😞 Our memories we hold dear. Condolences to Pat, her mom, her children & grandchildren etc.

You are always in our hearts, thoughts & prayers 🙏 We hope to visit in the future 🕊️ God willing. Carrie until w meet again 🥺

“ Carrie was an amazing woman. She showed all of us the real meaning of determination. She fought her cancer far longer than many thought was possible. She fought because of her wonderful family and her desire to be with them for as long as possible. She loved them all fiercely and wanted the best for all of them. She was an inspiration to her family and her friends. We rejoice in the knowledge that she is no longer in pain but are sorrowful that she is no longer close by. I am so grateful that I could count her among my friends. She is in the best place now. Heaven has a powerful new angel. Love, peace and blessings to her family.
