“ *Dear Kay and Glenn, and family,
I was so sorry to read this sad news today. Since I moved to Delaware, I don't get my newspaper until a week or more later, though I wanted to express my Deepest Sympathy to you on the lose of your daughter. I hope in some way, you will be able to remember her and all the wonderful years you had together, though it's difficult to do so now, it will help you heal, and be Thankful that you had her in your lives. May God Bless you all, and bring you peace during the coming months. Sending my love to you, and prayers,
Sincerely, Denise Burch and family.*

“ My heart is broken... I have so many wonderful memories of Cassie... smart, sassy, funny, friendly, free-spirited... the laughter we shared together in our AFSA Bat Cave echo'd through the hallways. I will cherish the memory of her infectious laugh, her beautiful smile and friendship forever. Miss you Cass-a-frass!

“ Kay ,Glen, Jeremy, Tonya,
I can't even begin to express in words my deep sorrow for your loss of Cassie, nor I can ease your deep grief and heartache with mere words.

*You raised a wonderful daughter, beautiful free spirited soul.
We will miss her always, please know that many share in your grief.
Love and prayers to all.....*

“ Kay, Tonya, Jeremey, Glenn, and Family,
I am so sorry for your loss and can't imagine what you all must be going through. I have many wonderful memories of Cassie while we were growing up, starting with all the afternoons after Kindergarten spent playing with her. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ I remember Cassie as sweet, kind, brave and upbeat. Even when we visited and she was sick, she always made things brighter. Now her sick days are over and she is happy and glowing, watching over you, and waiting for you. Rest in peace sweet girl, until we meet again. All our love.

another thing that really stands out in my mind when we were visiting Cassie at her home was the immediate rapport that Cassie had with Ethan (8 years old) . When Cassie was tired she went downstairs; I went downstairs a while later and there was Cassie and Ethan talking and just being together. So sweet and so wonderful.
