Cathy was such a kind lady, a very good friend to my Mom. Always loved to listen to them sharing stories about their younger days growing up in the South. She will be missed by so many. Our sympathies to her family. ~ Debbie, Jimmy & Bobbie Reese

Cathy and Bill were loving and faithful members of Calvary Gospel Church until each of their deaths. We created some wonderful memories together, not only in church services, but other activities like Christmas bazaars, Cornerstones, dinners, etc.

“ Cathy was a wonderful friend to my family. She took my sister Vicki to get her hair done quite often. Cathy was a regular dinner companion to my father and sister. She taught both my grandsons Sunday school and they loved her. She will be greatly missed. Until I see you again.
