“ Mrs Bass,

You are in my prayers. Mr. Bass was a true gentleman and was always a pleasure to be around. I have very fond memories of growing up guided by the wisdom of people like him and feel very blessed to have known him.

“ Donna,

You and Gene have been two of our favorite persons since Gil met Gene in night school at Ben Franklin in the early 1960s. One of the stops we always planned into our infrequent trips to Maryland was the visit with you, which we always enjoyed and cherished. While we are 3,000 miles apart, we have always looked forward to your friendly voices on the phone, and this will not change one bit. While we will sorely miss Gene during the visits and phone calls, we are convinced that Gene, in his present state of spirit and health, would be wondering what all the fuss is about. We are certain that we will see him again.

“ Charlie (Gene) was one of the nicest persons I ever met. He was a good friend and a good colleague. He was knowledgeable, helpful and had a pleasant personality with great sense of humor. I will always remain thankful for his help and guidance at work. Knowing him and working with him was a wonderful experience. He will be missed.
May his soul rest in peace and may God comfort his family at this time of sorrow. My wife, Vivian, joins me to express our heartfelt condolences to Donna and family.

“ Matthew carries you with him every day with his middle name, "Eugene". You will forever remain close to him in his heart and mine too. Like so many of us we will remember your undying generosity and those wonderful hugs and kisses. We'll treasure this picture indelibly in our minds of the love you and Donna shared for 65 years. God bless you and keep you may His light shine down upon you and be gracious unto you.

“ Gene was one of the finest men that I had ever known. I always had so much respect for him and Donna. I considered them as BEST FRIENDS for the twenty one years that we worked together. I have thought of them so often and I will surely miss Gene now that he has gone home to be with GOD. Hope to see him again in the by and by.
