October 11, 1938 - September 2, 2021

Charles James (Charlie) Gauthier, 82, a long-time resident of Bryans Road, Maryland passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, September 2, 2021.

Charlie was born in New Orleans, Louisiana on October 11, 1938, son of Maurice Gauthier and Alice Atherton Gauthier. He attended school at St. Alysious High School in New Orleans, Louisiana followed by obtaining a degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Southwestern Louisiana (now ULL) in Lafayette, Louisiana in 1961. It was there where he met the love of his life and best friend, Carmen Rose Bernard. The couple were married on November 25, 1961 in Mansura, Louisiana and shortly thereafter moved to Maryland where they have lived for the past nearly 60 years. Charlie was a devoted husband and dedicated father with three children who admired him, looked to him for all guidance, learned from his work ethic, and always knew he was there to support and guide them. Charlie had a successful career as an Engineer for the Indian Head Naval Surface Warfare Center in Indian Head, Maryland for 33 years until his retirement in 1994. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and an active member of St. Mary Star of the Sea Catholic Church where he served as a Eucharistic Minister and active member of the Food Pantry Ministry. Charlie loved helping those less fortunate than himself and was so generous with his time and energy. During his younger years, he served as a Cub Scout and Boy Scout leader for many years.

Charlie is survived by his loving wife and best friend of nearly 60 years, Carmen Rose Bernard Gauthier; his children, Connie Gauthier Rosenberger (Tom), Charles Robert Gauthier (Debbie), and Christopher Gauthier (Rachel); his grandchildren, Allison Gauthier Shirt and Simone Gauthier, Thomas and Daniel Rosenberger, and Chloe and Connor Gauthier; his great grandson, John Charles (Jack) Shirt; and his siblings, Agnes Gauthier Mautner, Patricia Gauthier Ashton, and Suzanne Gauthier LeBaron. “ Carmen, I am so sorry to read of Charlie’s passing. I remember you both while at Matthew Henson Middle School. You always seemed to be so much close and happy and in love. I will always remember Charlie’s smile. I wish you peace of mind and pleasant memories.

“ Carmen, I'm not sure if you remember that you and Charles came to my home several years ago - I got several members of the St. Matthias class here and we had coffee and dessert. I talked with Charles earlier this year, around May, I think. So very sorry to hear of your loss. Charles was always a kind person with a great smile.

Please keep in touch.
