“ My sincere condolences to Chuck's family. Chuck and I were close friends in the Navy and he and I used to double date together. My wife, Patty and I are very saddened by his passing.

We used to talk on the phone regularly and catch up on old, fun times we shared together. He had promised to visit me in California, but it never came to fruition. I wish that I could have seen, or spoken to him one more time. I will never forget my brother Chuck.

May you rest in peace my friend.

“ Chuck and I were cousins that became the best of friends. He, in White Plains, Maryland, and me in Silver Spring, Maryland. We would call each other and share memories from our lives in New Haven. I have often said that I was sorry that we didn't meet each other as youngsters. He was a reservoir of Family History and knew a great number of family members in New Haven. He will be greatly missed.
