“ I met Charlotte at St. Martin's in-the-Field Episcopal Church's Christmas craft fair where we were both displaying our art. She overheard me talking to my business partner about my grandfather from Tennessee, Edgar William Broyles. Charlotte excused herself and said, "I couldn't help but hear you talk about your grandfather, tell me his name again? She recognized it from her research, put her hand out, and said, "Hello, cousin!" We were both descended from Johannes Breyhel who came from Germany in 1717!

I was a New England transplant to MD...what were the chances of us meeting? She even knew my late brother in law, Richard Allen Day, Jr!

Small world, indeed!
