“ I enjoyed my time knowing Chris as I worked with him my entire Coca-Cola career. He was always someone I could count on. He always picked up the phone and was a man of his word. I haven't spoke to Chris in sometime but I can hear his voice as soon I think of him. He was a good man who died to young. I would always have Chris my team he was a team player and true competitor. Miss you Chris - Rob Busick

“ Many years ago, Chis and I took this picture in a photo booth on the board walk in Ocean City. It is one of my fondest memories with him and it seems like it was just yesterday. It has been on my refrigerator for as long as I can remember. I will never forget his infectious smile and wish I could give him one more tight squeeze.

Love,
Lynn (his favorite sister)

“ Our hearts were broken when we got the call Sunday. We had just talked to Chris 3 weeks ago. He would call us or we’d call him. He had just sent me pics of the house Susan and he were redoing. It was beautiful. That’s all he talked about was moving there and getting a better job. Tony and I invited him down for a long weekend but he only got a day off a month. He worked so hard. Too hard. We also chatted about his boys. He gloated about them and told me they were both engaged. I remember him telling me how he got married in his backyard and how his dogs were a part of the ceremony! He loved his friends and talked about Tony D during our last conversation and how happy he was that Tony D was doing well. I will miss Chris’ calls and texts. I will miss his infectious smile and gentle soul. He will be missed by so many Tony and I send our love and prayers to his family. A special hug for Mrs Sollars. Love, Kim and Tony King
