

Chrystal Starr Beauregard

May 2, 1940 - April 25, 2021

Chrystal Starr Beauregard of La Plata, MD passed away April 25, 2021 at the age of 80. Born in Springfield, MA, Chrystal met her future husband Albert (Al) Beauregard at Westover Air Force Base in MA during the summer of 1959. They were married on January 16, 1960 and most recently celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary.

Chrystal enjoyed the many Air Force Bases that they were stationed at during Al's 30-year military career. When Al retired in 1986, they moved from Andrews AFB to Waldorf, MD where they lived for 33 years. In August 2019 they moved to La Plata, MD. During their tour of duty in Hawaii (her favorite assignment), Chrystal enjoyed being in the Lady's Sodality Club where she made life-long friendships. She also enjoyed volunteering with the Family Services at Dover AFB and Lackland AFB (TX). She was actively involved as a lector at their church, no matter which base or state they were in. She loved baking and is well known for all the novelty cakes she made for many years and many occasions. She also baked cakes for all occasions for their church including First Communion, Confirmation, raffles (popular Turkey cake), as well as baked cakes for the monthly birthday celebration at Charlotte Hall Veterans Home. She is fondly known by all of her children, grandchildren and many of their friends for her Saturday morning pancakes, especially the chocolate chip ones. All of her grandchildren were trained to put out their finger to get a taste of her homemade cake frosting.

She is survived by her husband Al, their daughters Lori Loriso (Mark), Sheri Beauregard James (Mike), Vicki Caspar (Mike), Tracy Hash (Randy), and Jody Catterton Logue. Grandchildren: Robert Albert & Brett Starr Beauregard, Rachel & Christopher (Allison) Caspar, Alexander, Gabriel & Kaitlyn Catterton, Amber, Taylor & Scotty Logue, Matthew Hash and Daniella Gray (Will). Great Grandchildren: Kylie & Robert Beauregard Jr., Cayden, Ella, Olan, Christopher, Emilea, Mackenzie & Madeline, sister Priscilla Martin of MA, brother-in-law Edward Beauregard (Barbara) of FL, and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She is predeceased by daughter Christy Lynne Simon, grandson Ryan Caspar, mother Edith Bratcher, siblings Shirlee (Bratcher) Anastasio Youngblood, Howard Bratcher, Chloe (Bratcher) Hitch, Adrian “Sonny” Bratcher, and Wayne Willetz, niece Phyllis Cerullo, nephews William, Robert & James Martin, great nephew Joshua Bee, son-in-law Scott Logue, and many more beloved relatives.

“ Mom, I already miss you and talking to you everyday. I know you will always be in my heart and my memory. I treasure all the years we had you with us. You have been through a lot the last 16 months. I have found some peace in knowing you are no longer in pain and you went home to God peacefully. I will always hear in my mind your cellphone message "Hi this is Chrystal leave your name and number and I will get back to you". and of course "the mailbox is full". I have already been opening my little bottle of White Shoulders perfume (your favorite) and smelling it as it makes me feel closer to you.
Mark and I will miss you greatly and know that you are looking down and watching over our family. Love you! Lori

Mom, I will miss you more than words could say. I thank you for being a wonderful mother and providing dad and all of your daughters and grandchildren with tons of fond memories. You went the extra mile in everything you did and you made sure to make all holiday gatherings special with all of the decorations and plenty of food and of course your special cakes and cupcakes. From your union with dad you left a large legacy of six daughters, 12 grandchildren, and nine great grandchildren. You will live on in all of our hearts and thoughts. I take comfort that you are with God and reunited with your daughter Christy, grandson Ryan, your siblings, mother, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many more family and friends. I love you — Sheri

More than 40 years ago our family had the good fortune to move into temporary military housing next to the Beauregard's. Over that time I have learned the meaning of a true friend. Whether it was being godparents to our youngest son, being present for our oldest son's wedding, celebrating many family milestones and holidays, enjoying home-cooked meals, or just picking up the phone to share a recipe or gardening tips, Chrystal was always there to encourage, and support, no matter the situation. What a joy to watch her daughters grow up from Jodi as a toddler and babysitters for our boys, to beautiful and respectful young women. Chrystal exemplified the meaning of true discipleship and I know that our Lord will welcome her with loving arms with the words "well done my good and faithful servant." Our whole family will miss you more than words can ever say.
