“ Aunt Go, Linda, Andy and Families - We are so sorry. Uncle Clyde was such a wonderful guy. I remember staying over and he would bring Linda and I burgers from the Twin Kiss when he got home. And going with my Dad on the weekends to the Twin Kiss and watching the handmade onion rings being made. I loved going there. May he now be at peace. Love you all, Susie, George & Zack

“Gloria, Linda and Andy, Our heart's go out to you Clyde was such great man. He will be greatly missed. It is so hard to lose your loved one, even though you know he is now with the Lord and no more pain. It is the living that now has the suffering. Always remember the wonderful memories you and your loved one shared. Your family is in our prayers. Love Pam and Eddie...”
