

Connie Moore Wilder

October 18, 1952 - June 30, 2020

Connie Moore Wilder passed away peacefully and surrounded by family on 30 June 2020, in Hughesville, MD. Born 18 October 1952, the daughter of Maylon and Pearl Moore, she is preceded in death by her parents, beloved husband, Randy Earl Wilder, brother Bobby Gene Moore, and sister Mattie Pearl Aycock. Connie is survived by her son, Dustin Lee Thomas, his wife Wendy, and children, Dustin (Lee) Jr., William, and Skylar; her daughter Dava Brianne Stewart, husband Brian Stewart, and children, Kayleigh, Karson, Kaelyn (Emma), and Kayden (Ensley); and brother Maylon Leon Moore, and his wife Marie Moore.

She owned and operated Connie's in downtown Clayton, where she was stylist and friend to many for a number of years. Later she was recruited by the NC Board of Cosmetic Arts, where Connie, always the consummate rule-follower, became Chief of Enforcement. She was Mama, Grandma Connie, and Ooma. She was truly a beautiful lady, and will be remembered always by those that knew her for her kindness and her thoughtful heart.

A celebration of Connie's life will be held by her immediate family at a future date in Clayton, NC, where Connie's wishes will be honored and her ashes spread near her childhood home. In lieu of flowers, please feed the birds, that they may lift up her spirit the same way she always lifted ours.

“ Connie was a great person with a nice smile that would brighten your day. We were neighbors for over two decades and she cared so much for her friends and family, especially her grandchildren whom she adored. We were all lucky to know her and have her in our lives and my prayers go out to the family.

“ Connie was a dear sweet friend of mine and my hairdresser. She went to school with my husband Terry Driver. We had a lot of discussions about my daughter Michelle and her son Dustin, as they went to school together also. I know she will be missed by many customers and friends and my heart goes out to Dustin and Dava and their families because it's hard to lose your Mama. Y'all we be in my thoughts and prayers.

*To Dava and family, I was always thankful that a person as nice and kind as Connie lived next door to my son, Jeff Horton. I still remember the good times Dava, my granddaughter Jana Horton and I had making pasta dishes in the Horton kitchen. With love and many prayers,
