“ *To The Macogay Children and their families,
My love & prayers to the Macogay Families. Connie was my friend for over 70 years. Her, Abbie and her family were there for me when I needed someone. Connie was a beautiful woman inside and out.
We would talk on the phone, vent to each other and then laugh so much. I will miss you dear friend may you Rest In Peace.
Love, Eleanor & Family*

“ Aunt Connie/Godmother,

I so sorry that I'm unable to get back home for your services. It's hard to express how sad I am about your passing, but I have so many fond memories about you and our family. I'll always remember your voice calling me Bobby and how you and Abbie were so kind and friendly to Aaron. When I last saw you, you were grieving for Abbie, but still smiling and laughing as we talked about memories and family tree. I've learned that our Filipino fathers and Irish Mothers, produced one hell of a family. Love you always!

“ I have known the family fifty eight years and it will be sad to know she passed without going to visit her a few months ago after Abby passed on. She was a friendly person and very ladylike. She was my sons godmother and I remember her arms got tired holding Mark for so long being baptized. We joked about that.
