

Crystal Nicole Smith

December 6, 1988 - February 14, 2022

Crystal Nicole Smith was born to Jeffery and Doris Proctor on December 6, 1988 and passed February 14, 2022. Crystal graduated from La Plata High School, and worked for Alphabest for 14 years.

Crystal had three children, Damari Jenifer, Makaio Smith, and Mason Smith. On June 18, 2016 she married Martane Smith, her loving husband. She was a loving mother, where she attended the kids' football and basketball games, where she cheered ever so loudly.

Crystal enjoyed having coffee in the morning with her mom, watching All-Star Weekend with her husband, cooking for her family, art, music, and all things beauty such as doing her hair and makeup. Tennessee is where she loved to vacation and spend time with her family, and in the summer being poolside. She enjoyed Christmas time but her favorite holiday was the fourth of July. Crystal would round everyone up where she'd have games to play. Crystal was the life of the party, anyone attending had a good time. Best description of Crystal was strong, loving, sweet, courageous, and caring. She put her faith in God whole heartedly where she was a spiritual discerner of him.

Crystal is preceded in death by her grandparents, James Leo Sr. and Mary Betty Thompson and Milton and Mary Evelyn (Sissy) Proctor.

Crystal leaves behind her parents; husband; children; brothers, Orlando Proctor (Brooke) and Domonique Proctor (Lisa); and one niece, Dayloni Proctor. She also leaves her mother-in-law, Paula Smith (Bruce), father-in-law, Kevin Marshall (Teresa); sisters-in-law, Kyra and Zenobia; brother-in-law, BJ Smith; Godparents, Gladys Newman and Tyrone Proctor; Godchildren, Amir Lyles, Amaris and Armon Savoy; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Pallbearers will be Carl Gutrick Jr., Bryan Proctor, Justin Thompson, Lamont Smith, Rodney Savoy, Tyrone Proctor, Bruce Smith and Jacobi Smith.

Services will be held at St. Peters Church on Thursday, February 24, 2022. Viewing is 9am-10am with Mass with Father Woods at 10 am. St. Peters Catholic Church, 3320 St Peters Drive, Waldorf MD 20601.
