She attended Texas Christian Women’s University, Louisiana State University, and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1975. She was employed at the Exxon Refinery in Baton Rouge, Louisiana and Exxon facilities in New Jersey as a pilot plant operator and bench chemist. She was later employed by Union Camp Corporation, Chemetal U.S., and BASF Corporation in NJ as chemical and radiation laboratory supervisor, OSHA rules administrator, and in research and development.

Cindy had many interests that included active volunteer for the American Red Cross as first aid instructor, EMT, lifesaving (swimming) instructor, emergency shelter supervisor, and first aid station supervisor at Tiger Stadium in Baton Rouge for her beloved LSU Tiger Football team (Geaux Cindy)! International. Notary Public for Monroe Township, New Jersey. Lay Pastor for Princeton United Methodist Church of Princeton, New Jersey and the LaPlata United Methodist Church of LaPlata, Maryland.

Survived by her husband of 47 years, Richard L. Gordon, daughter Heather Gordon Freitag and her husband Jerry, son Rory C. Gordon and his wife Emily, granddaughter Hannah Freitag and grandson Remy Gordon, sister Marsha Daniel and her husband Eddie, niece Allison and nephews Austin and Tyler, a lifetime special childhood friend Cheryl Beauford, special cousin Becky Gladrow, beloved sister in law Luanne Lebwohl and her husband Michael, nephews Jason and Robert, many grand nieces and nephews, and very special friends.

Cindy was a strong and loving person, fiercely loyal to family, friends, and her Christian beliefs. She firmly believed that all of us are capable of treating all others with respect, dignity, and empathy, despite encountering numerous examples – all her adult life – of cruel, immoral, and selfish people who act and hurt with impunity. Yet despite this, she still expected basic decency from all people at all times.

“Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Let her share in the results of her works; let her deeds praise her in the city gates.”

(Proverbs 31: 30, 31.)

Cindy was a friend that was faithful and kind.

I am grateful for her wisdom and support that she gave me. Her penchant for perfection and quality distinguished her from others.

She was the perfect wife, mother, grandmother, sister and minister. She loved and embraced so many others outside of her family.

I pray that our Lord Jesus will continue to comfort her family, may the wonderful memories of Cindy buoy them through this difficult time.

Forever in my heart.

Take your rest, my sister and best friend. You are now in the arms of God.
