“ Where to start, Cindy and I were best friends since Junior High and our Dads both in the Air Force. We were lucky to have each other in our development that we lived waiting for our Dads to retire. Some of my greatest memories of Cindy are to many to list, but I was there when she recieved to engagement ring from David. You see, David is my husband Robbie's cousin and we introduced them and I guess you can say the rest is history. I was honored to be her Maid Of Honor at her wedding and Robbie was David's Best Man. It was a beautiful day and wedding. When my children started coming Cindy was always there for us. David even staying in the hospital with Butch one Christmas so we could be home with our oldest daughter Cristy. Cindy and David are Godparents to our son Butch, AKA Robert A Gregory Jr. When we welcomed Jermery into their family, Robbie and I became his Godparents. This is so hard to write because I could go on and on, but it is so hard remembering all the good times and bad thru the years thru all my tears. I not only lost a Best Friend, and Soul Mate for lifel also lost my listener. Even though we moved Cindy and I kept in touch. All though I lives took different turns we knew we were there for each other. I love you Cindy and until we meet again, you will always be in my heart. Love, Toni

“ Sending love and hugs to Dave and the entire family. We are going to miss so much about Cindy. She had a laugh that would always make me smile. I have so many memories of past Christmas parties and the annual barbecues. She made a beautiful quilt for my son when he was born. I was amazed at the level of skill and pride in her work that was clearly evident. It is gorgeous! It frustrated her to no end that we wouldn't tell anyone the name until he arrived (she wanted to put it on the quilt)...She even tried to trick it out of me! Memories like that I will cherish both for her generosity and her sense of humor. She will be greatly missed by us all.

“ Praying for peaceful repose!. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Cindy was a very generous person and worked tirelessly in support of the Maryland Chapter of the American Sewing Guild. We will miss her great spirit at our sewing events, especially the annual sewing retreat!

“ David, We can't recall too many Olsen family gatherings that didn't include all of you. It was just normal to us. As part of all those gatherings, we shared many laughs and that is one thing we will always remember....Cindy's sudden burst of laughter. It just made you smile. Her creative side was just amazing. When she spoke of what she was doing, she made it sound so easy. So much talent and sharing of it too. She will be missed tremendously at all our future Olsen family gatherings. Memories and love...in the end it is what keeps us going. We know you have a wealth of both.

All our best to you, Jeremy and Connie.

“ We had so many things planned together... but God took you away far too soon.. He had bigger and better plans for you I always considered you as my second mother as I had lost my very own mother. You taught me so many things and what sticks out to me most is that you were always ready to listen no matter what you were busy with at anytime. Always had good advice to give to your friends and family!! I will always remember the good times we had together though it was far too short. You will always be in our hearts. Rest in peace until we meet again in heaven!! Love you Mom!!!

“ Cindy was one of the most friendliest and loving woman I have known. She was always so happy and loved Dave and Jeremy so much. I always looked up to the relationship they had and hoped and prayed that one day I would find true love and happiness like Dave and Cindy had. Cindy was a great mother wife and friend to many. God has truly found a very unique angel. Cindy was always happy. I don't think I ever saw her when she wasn't. I will always remember the pep talks she gave me about not settling for unhappiness and she told me I would find my perfect man just like she did. And she was right!! I will never forget you and will always hold you in my heart. Gone way to soon. Look over your family. May you rest in peace. When I get to heaven I hope you have a beautiful quilt waiting for me!!

“ May God welcome you home with open arms and provide comfort to your beloved David and Jeremy. Gone way too soon, my friend. Our B group will not be the same without you. My memories, however, will live forever in my heart. Whenever I turn on my windshield wipers, I shall think of you! May you rest in peace.

“ You were a such a dear and caring friend. I just cannot image our B group without you. I shall cherish always the memories, and smile whenever I turn on my windshield wipers. The hum of the wipers will be my song of love to you. Thanks for being part of my life, however short. May God welcome you home and provide the comfort and love to your beloved David and Jeremy. It will be difficult, but with time and faith, we will all come to understand your early passing.
